

Safety Committee OR Safety Meetings

Everyone has to do something!

Who must follow the rule?

Everyone unless you are a...

- Sole owner / only corporate employee
- Board or Commission member *
- Agriculture Employer
- Forest Activity Employer

When do I have to comply?

Committee or Meetings?

Options:

- Flexibility for small and mobile employers

Goal:

- Improved management of safety and health

Should I start a safety committee or hold safety meetings?

Most businesses can have safety committees or hold safety meetings. This table shows your options.

If...	Can I have a safety committee?	Can I hold safety meetings?
A. You have 10 or fewer employees (including seasonal and temporary employees) for more than half of the year.	Yes	Yes
B. More than half of your employees report to construction sites.	Yes	Yes
C. More than half of your employees are mobile or move frequently between sites.	Yes	Yes
D. More than half of your employees regularly work in an office environment.	Yes	Yes
E. You have more than 10 employees at one location and B-D above do not apply.	Yes	No
F. You have satellite or auxiliary offices with 10 or fewer employees at each location.	Yes	Yes

Should I start a safety committee or hold safety meetings?
Most businesses can have safety committees or hold safety meetings. This table shows your options.
If...	Can I have a safety committee?	Can I hold safety meetings?
A. You have 10 or fewer employees (including seasonal and temporary employees) for more than half of the year.	Yes	Yes
Oregon OSHA PUBLIC EDUCATION

Should I start a safety committee or hold safety meetings?
Most businesses can have safety committees or hold safety meetings. This table shows your options.
If...	Can I have a safety committee?	Can I hold safety meetings?
B. More than half of your employees report to construction sites.	Yes	Yes
Oregon OSHA PUBLIC EDUCATION

Should I start a safety committee or hold safety meetings?
Most businesses can have safety committees or hold safety meetings. This table shows your options.
If...	Can I have a safety committee?	Can I hold safety meetings?
C. More than half of your employees are mobile or move frequently between sites.	Yes	Yes
Oregon OSHA PUBLIC EDUCATION

Should I start a safety committee or hold safety meetings?
Most businesses can have safety committees or hold safety meetings. This table shows your options.
If...	Can I have a safety committee?	Can I hold safety meetings?
D. More than half of your employees regularly work in an office environment.	Yes	Yes
 Oregon OSHA PUBLIC EDUCATION

Should I start a safety committee or hold safety meetings?
Most businesses can have safety committees or hold safety meetings. This table shows your options.
If...	Can I have a safety committee?	Can I hold safety meetings?
B. More than half of your employees report to construction sites.	Yes	Yes
C. More than half of your employees are mobile or move frequently between sites.	Yes	Yes
D. More than half of your employees regularly work in an office environment.	Yes	Yes
E. You have more than 10 employees at one location and B-D above do not apply.	Yes	No
Oregon OSHA PUBLIC EDUCATION

Should I start a safety committee or hold safety meetings?
Most businesses can have safety committees or hold safety meetings. This table shows your options.
If...	Can I have a safety committee?	Can I hold safety meetings?
F. You have satellite or auxiliary offices with 10 or fewer employees at each location.	Yes	Yes
Oregon OSHA PUBLIC EDUCATION

Centralized Safety Committee

All heading in the same direction

Safety Committee Requirements

Who can be a member?

Safety Committee Requirements

What does the committee do?

Safety Committee Requirements

What's in the minutes?

Safety Committee Requirements

Work site inspections

Safety Meetings

Safety Meetings

What has to happen?

Oregon
OSHA
PUBLIC EDUCATION

Safety Meetings

How often?

Oregon
OSHA
PUBLIC EDUCATION

Safety Meetings

What do you have to talk about?

Oregon
OSHA
PUBLIC EDUCATION

Safety Meeting

- Subcontractor employees can attend prime's safety meetings
 - must still meet to discuss your accidents

Oregon
OSHA
PUBLIC EDUCATION